

Elan "Another Woman"

Visit "Another Woman" on MotoLyrics.com

Spend most of your time looking in a mirror
Same face you saw yesterday
Why won't you give yourself a break, darling
Take a walk outside your mind for a change

[Chorus:]

Find yourself another woman (another woman)
Find yourself another way
Find yourself another woman (another woman)
Find yourself what you call a one night stand

Spend most of your time talking 'bout the weather
Then it's cold outside and you won't really care
I'd say you're just a little spoiled, pretty boy
You walked the line, but you stayed far behind

[Chorus]

'Cause it's a long way back from what it used to be
I feel a little torn up
A little broken up
And this time I think it's over

Find yourself another woman, another woman
Uh, find yourself another woman, find yourself another way
Uh, find yourself another woman
