"Be Free"

You think you have the secret information
but you never sent the magic invitation.
You think every little thing you see is just as plain and simple as it seems

You fell out of line, you see no crime.
And it don't seem to come to your attention.
I'm sick of all your prying and suspicion,
you're always looking for an explanation
but now it's time you got your education.

And I, I will be free,
I, I will be free.

I have arranged for your accomodation,
give you a pretty room with a view.
So take your lies and your imagination off to have a beautiful vacation.

'Cause you fell out of line, you see no crime.

And it don't seem to come to your attention.
I'm sick of all your prying and suspicion,
you're always looking for an explanation
but now it's time you got your education.

And I, I will be free,
you don't bother me.
I, I will be free,
you don't bother me.

I, I will be free,
you don't bother me.

I, I will be free (x4)
