"My Last Sting"

Can you see when you're blind?
Bend and incline
Fall face first when you realize your crime
You're so fine
Stained carpet with my red wine
Passed out like old times

I had a dream I was just dine
I read your letters and calculated
Just how long had it been
Since my last hit
Since my last letdown
Since my last sting
Since my last sting

I sleeo with my boots on
And bathe in my jeans
And I'm a cheap date
By all means
Comets and black moons
Live in my room
And I fake my deception

And I had a dream I was just fine
I read your letters and calculated
Just how long had it been
Since my last hit
Since my last letdown
Since my last sting
Since my last sting
