"Shine"

I found your stones today
The ones you found in Greece
I hope you're sleeping soundly now
And that you're searching peace
I don't have much to say
So I'll say it anyway

'Cause you shouldn't have
To take this anymore
You moved on and nothing more

I hope you shine away
I hope you fly, but not away
I know you'll find your own way
But at the end of the day
If you're okay, I'm okay

I kept all the letters
'Cuase they remind me of your smile
I even wonder what you're up to
Every once in a while

But you shouldn't have
To take this anymore
You moved on and nothing more

I hope you shine away
I hope you fly, but not away
I know you'll find your own way
But at the end of the day
If you're okay, I'm okay
