"Through You"

What can I say when you got me
At a bad time in my life
What should I say when you look at me
Kind of strange
And the disappointment is more
Than you'd imagined
And I know these things won't ever be
The same for me and you
But I learned from you, my friend...

You can't treat people like this
'Cause one day...
You can't treat people like this
'Cause one day...
They're going to run away from you

This time you let me down
And I won't forgive you
This time it's all your fault
And I won't forgive you

You broke me to pieces
You tore me to pieces

What should I say when you were
The first to make up your mind
What can I say when it's never right
It's never wrong
And all the clues
Just happen to be gone
There was a time when
I thought I could see through you,
Now I just don't want to

'Cause I'm tired of seeing you
Tired of me
I need to find someone
Who likes me

This time you let me down

And I won't forgive you
This time it's all your fault
And I won't forgive you

You broke me to pieces
You tore me to pieces
