After all is said and done
Now our life has just begun
And I'ma promise to
Always make your dreams come true
Because you mean so much to me
So what I'm gonna do is do right by you

Do right by you
Do right by you
Do right by you
Do right by you

Now we're on the road
Carrying that heavy load
Problems there to ignore
That's one thing we can't afford
Because we cannot live a lie
So what I'm gonna do is do right by you

Do right by you
Do right by you
Do right by you
Do right by you

Put you first I always do
And you know that to be true
Now that I've committed to Spending my whole life with you
Don't you know it makes me feel alive
Girl, you make it easy to do right by you

Do right by you
Do right by you
Do right by you
Do right by you

And I promise to love and cherish you every day
And involve you in all decisions that I make Win or lose whatever happens, we'll get through
So what I'm trying to say is that I will find a way to 'Á€Á!

Do right by you (repeat)
