John's gone, his senses loaded over by your house
You know it's so basic, ohh
1 2 3 4

John's gone, his senses loaded over by your house
It's so basic, I think you're faking
Have a good time
But don't get into my head
Do you recommend I wait a while?
Direct and live or keep it constant and selective blue

I can read your mind
If you want to
I will let you blue

I can read your mind
If you want to
I will let you

John's gone, he needs attention
Do you understand his inclination?
I've seen you shaking
Come down here and I'll show you the wrong way
Try to rearrange this tired old line
Connect this smile and keep it standard and reflective blue

I can read your mind
If you want to
I will let you blue

I can read your mind
I will let you
If you want to
