What color are you God?

What side are you on?

Sure you're conceiving love?

We are born to wage wars!

Check it out from your high throne

Rabid dogs sinking teeth into skin

Hear the screams getting closer

Everyone is smelling like xenophobia

CHORUS

What's the color of the earth tomorrow?

We'll all be acting like avengers

Thank you god for our planet

Tell us why some people are dark and some briht

Sure you meant just one community?

This difference is spinning the world against its own run..

CHORUS

What's the color of the earth tomorrow?

We'll all be acting like avengers

Disagreeing words sound so hollow...

(no one wants to take the blame)

what's the color of the race to follow?

...By extreme prejudice...

What color are you God?

What side are you on?

CHORUS

What's the color of the earth tomorrow?

We'll all be acting like avengers

Disagreeing words sound so hollow...

(no one wants to take the blame)

What's the color of the race to follow?
