Crawling through the path, trying to win this wrath
I can see things unreal here trying to find a real sense to my life all I see in front of me is black

Time goes on for me, not too far I see there ain't no future here it's like I belong to another race and I'm cursed to wear this face

Don't stop me now, don't follow me

I'm dying every night, the epilogue of my life
I'm dying every night, the epilogue of my life

Feeling like a dumb, leftovers and crumbs

it's exactly like hell someone is helping me then some killing me got to erase my enemies

Don't stop me now, don't follow me

I'm dying every night, the epilogue of my life
I'm dying every night, the epilogue of my life
