"The Dark Inside"

Visit "The Dark Inside" on MotoLyrics.com

After the night, the sun will shine
And I would like to be in Heaven
After the rain, after the pain
Don't know if my heart could be beating

Who knows the reasons why I'm here, down on my knees and crying?

The dark inside!!!
The sky is black, my soul get's dark
Even the sun now is shading
Some people laugh, some children smile
All that I see are just illusions

Who knows the reasons why I'm here, down on my knees and crying?

The dark inside!!!
