I repent 'cause I was wrong.
Memories bring back remorse.
Now I know that you were right.
I was jealous, immature.
Too late to say that I am sorry
For not having listened to
Every tear and crying sign.
I was wrong and you were right.
Don?t give me an opportunity,
Just forget my immaturity.
It was a mistake on my part

To push your parents into a fight.
Though these words are meaningless,
Try to forgive me at least.
I was selfish, as you know.
How could I have killed your love?
I killed the bright light in your eyes.
I was wrong and your were right.
Don?t give me an opportunity,
Just forget my immaturity.
