Fred rings the bell "Dick Lavent is deadW.
Renee on the sofa is watching the video tape.
Fred takes a seat, the screen shows it.
The murder is done and Fred is now at Home, alone.
A crime of passion killed Renne.
Do you remember anything?
The police asked Fred, knocking him out.
Fred is waiting for the electric chair,
Lying in prison. He?s recreating everything
As he wants.
Sometimes he likes remembering things
That happened not necessarily like
They happened, not as the really were.
The transformation comes, he is not Fred,

It is no problem to turn himself into a lie.
Pete is innocent and begins to live in Places with different people in his
Mind, out of control.
Sometimes he likes remembering
That happened not necessarily like
They happened, not as the really were.
Pete escapes from reality, but it
Hunts him out, although it?s in his head.
Your creation is going down, illusions
Say you are not Pete, so you are Fred!
Sometimes he likes remembering
That happened not necessarily like
They happened, not as the really were.
