1.9.7.9. Jackot!!

After the last crude show,
as soon as the bandage falls,
goodbye to my fictitious world.
A new clarity is yet to come.
Looking at my own reflection...
better look to another place.
So I must change myself,
althought it's hard I'll do it well.

Over their shoulders the weight of the morale
and dragging the friendship as if dealing with a loser.

People have so many friends and pals,
if you need them one day, the won't let you down.
But I really need help many times,
up to this moment, nobody wants to give me support...
So what the hell!

Oh, it's difficult to be another man but I will be
because it is worthwhile.
Oh, it's so difficult, it's so difficult.

...So what the hell!

Oh, it's difficult to be another man but I will be
because it is worthwhile.
No!
Jackpot!
