Protected by a few little thorns.
Defended by an ethereal cocoon.
Growing weak, damned, sad and shy!

To be secure, to take the reins,
to hold the force that keep you sane.
There is a shield, a protective shield
all around you.
Come on, don't be afraid...
Smile and stay alive.

To make a choice, to enjoy life,
to hear the voice from deep inside,
destroy the wall, don't use the shield,
break all the barriers.
Come on, be yourself...
Smile and stay alive
