Counting clouds under the bridge
That I built to make you speak,
I send you signals of smoke.
But you don't see them at all.
Forgotten in a corner...
I'm waiting, keeping my thumb up...
While I lick my wounds.
Far, I see you...
Far, far, far.
Throwing bottles at you beach
With a message: "It is me"
I wink my eye, don't you know?
And nothing is what you show.
Letters in your mailbox...
I am standing in front of you...
Waving high my hand.
Far, I see you...
Far, far, far.
Well, you don't hear me yet.
No reaction till today.
And I'm tired of chasing you,
It's the only thing I do.
Forgotten in a corner...
Look at me... while I say good bye
