I wanna drive at high speeds
I wanna push the boundaries
Of my existance here, of my existence here.
Don't wanna hear enough is enough
I'm desperate for that crazy rush
When I break out of here, when I break out of here.

And even though it's all been tried before
Isn't there a chance that we can make it more
Than it has ever been before, than it has ever been before?

Just hold tight to the truth
It's making old things new
We'll stand on giants renewed
Till we reach the top
It's my ancient-future faith
It's being honest with today
Cause me on to break new ground and win the race.
Ho yeah! Ho yeah!

Can't believe I'm just a Duracell
I'm no disciple of a Hollywood hell
We've got to keep it real, we've got to keep it real.
The opportunity is there every day
Lend a hand, don't get in the way Diggin' deep and holding on, diggin' deep and holding on.

And even though it's all been tried before
Isn't there a chance that we can make it more
Than it has ever been before, than it has ever been
before?

Just hold tight to the truth
It's making old things new
We'll stand on giants renewed
Till we reach the top
It's my ancient-future faith
It's being honest with today
Cause me on to break new ground and win the race.

Ho yeah! Ho yeah!

I break out of here x8

Just hold tight to the truth
It's making old things new
We'll stand on giants renewed
Till we reach the top
It's my ancient-future faith
It's being honest with today
Cause me on to break new ground and win the race.
Ho yeah! Ho yeah!
