"Life On Mars"

Take my hand, I don't know the way,
Nor the way back.
I need a guide who knows, who's seen the edge of the world
And lived to tell the tale.
Once in a while

It's time to let go again
Everythings going to change

Life on Mars, as we've known it.
Yesterday and today, and forever is changed by Your love

Theories gone haywire, assumptions dismatled
As history unwinds and our future is changed, and our future is changed
"There's 8 colours in the rainbow, the moon's just a story,
Evolution got beaten by natural selection"
Now tell me the truth,
Now tell me the truth
What do You know?
