Ever since it started getting warm round here
Things have changed round here
That was the longest winter I have ever known
But things have changed round here

My bed is crawling with spiders and flies, spiders and flies
My bed is crawling with spiders and flies, spiders and
flies

Waiting for my weakness to expose itself
Silent in the dark
Hatching plans, they spin out lies and left alone
Again I miss the mark

My bed is crawling with spiders and flies...

Catch me out and smother me 'til I'm bound Hanging in the loft

My bed is crawling with spiders and flies...
