"You"

Lazy days and motorways
Have left me reeling low.
So we say hooray for every day
Our feet can touch the ground with you-ou.

I catch a glimpse of Heaven
Another city flashes by.
The same eternal questions echo round my mind.

And in the quiet moments when I'm taking some time
Studying the street maps and I'm reading signs
My reflection is clear, my mind's made up
It's right and it's true.

All I want is to sing with you x2 to 4

I hold on to this wheel
Joining in to every song.
But just like bad sopranos
I can't hold the high notes long.

And in the quiet moments when I'm taking some time
Studying the street maps and I'm reading signs
My reflection is clear, my mind's made up
It's right and it's true.

All I want is to sing with you x2 to 4
All I want is to sing with you;
All this for you
Everything that you have given me returned
All this for you
For you-ou x2 to 4
