I know that I cant keep her
Now shes in love with you
But I just wanna say
I wont be far away
So dont make my baby blue

I know your reputation
They say you cant be true
So Ill be standing by
And you just better try
Not to make my baby blue

My little girl, shes always been an angel
And it hurts me so bad to set her free
You better take good care of her
She still means all the world to me
You know she does

Im gonna step aside now
Just like she wants me to
But even though Im gone
Ill still be looking on
You better not make my baby blue
Shes been a good baby

I know your reputation
They say you cant be true
So Ill be standing by
And you just better try
Not to make my baby blue

My little girl, shes always been an angel
And it hurts me so bad to set her free
You better take good care of her
She still means all the world to me
You know she does

Im gonna step aside now
Just like she wants me to
But even though Im gone

Ill still be looking on
You better not make my baby blue
Shes been a good baby

You better try your best
Dont make my baby blue
Blue
