I'm getting out, I'm getting out

Sitting here, waiting for someone calling at my door
Too bad, I'm getting out of love
What's the use of changing things, wonder what tomorrow brings
Who knows, I'm getting out of love

My Shangri-La has gone away
Faded like the Beatles on 'Hey Jude'
She seemed to drift out on the rain
That came in somewhere softly from the blue

I'm getting out, I'm getting out

Clouds roll by and hide the sun, raindrops fallin' on everyone
So sad I'm getting out of love, yeah, yeah, yeah

My Shangri-La has gone away
Faded like the Beatles on 'Hey Jude'
She seemed to drift out on the rain
That came in somewhere softly from the blue

My Shangri-La has gone away
Faded like the Beatles on 'Hey Jude'
She seemed to drift out on the rain
That came in somewhere softly from the blue

I'm getting out of love
Where is my Shangri-La
Where is my Shangri-La
I'm getting out of love

I will be there, I will be there
I will be there till Shangri-La
I will be there
I will be there till Shangri-La
I will be there
I will be there till Shangri-La
