"So Fine"

Two drifters on the morning sky
Two drifters sailing wide and high
When summer breezes blow across your mind
With you I will walk the line

I want it so fine
I want it so fine
I want it so fine

People walking hand in hand
Everybody's singing to the band
I want to be where the stars shine bright
And hear the sweet music on a summer night

I want it so fine
I want it so fine
I want it so fine

Sundowners, we'll go on and on
We'll find the land of the midnight sun
And when you look you'll see for miles around
You'll see the world is in your hand

I want it so fine
I want it so fine
I want it so fine

Oh baby, yes you know you's on a war
I want it so fine
I want it so fine
I want it so fine
