Is there something that you've wanted
More than anything

Something you took for granted
Never stop to think

Suddenly it's there in your eyes
Suddenly you can recognize
That something
That certain something

Do I want you
Oh do I want you
More than anything

Did I love you
Oh did I love you
Never stop to think

All my life I've wanted one thing more
All my life I've been searching for
That something
That certain something

Oh no no no
Its not like that at all

Oh no no no
Not as I recall

Is there something that you've wanted
More than anything

Something you took for granted
Did you ever stop to think

All my life I've wanted one thing more
All my life I've been searching for
That something
That certain something
