I see the early glow, I hear you say hello
I watch the shadows fall, I don't see you at all
It's a lie I don't believe it's so, it's a lie
I see the autumn rain, falling on my window pane I hear you say goodbye, I see a tear in your eye

It's a lie I don't believe it's so, it's a lie
Our love couldn't go wrong, how could I know I was only dreaming
And now, now that you're gone, I will go on really believing
I take the fall

I see you slip away, into another day
There's no-one else around, I watch the sun go down

It's a lie I don't believe it's so, it's a lie
Our love couldn't go wrong, how could I know I was only
dreaming
And now, now that you're gone, I will go on really
believing
I take the fall

I take the fall
I see you in a dream, you turn and start to go
I call to you once more, guess that I'm takin' the fall

It's a lie I don't believe it's so, it's a lie
Our love couldn't go wrong, how could I know I was only
dreaming
And now, now that you're gone, I will go on really
believing
I take the fall

Our love couldn't go wrong, how could I know I was only
dreaming
And now, now that you're gone, I will go on really
believing
I take the fall
