

Blind Guardian "Black Chamber"

Visit "Black Chamber" on MotoLyrics.com

I am lost in the black chamber
There's no way to turning back
There still is light in a different world
It takes me down forevermore (forevermore)
And death could be so sweet (so sweet)

A dancing gloom
in a empty room
A cruel and painful game
I'm possessed by the old creature
Who had planned
to take my soul
Too late for me
In my hands
It lies I thought
But I failed
Now he's in me

My soul is lost
In his black chamber

I'm gone
