Conquer the whole world to satisfy
Their lust for pain and terror
Disguise their faces to hide them
In the dark determination

The oath on the rune staff is the highest
The ruin of a nation step by step, destiny

Damned for all time
But what's time?
Tales of the one
Who's born to change

And as the earth was old and cold
She closed her eyes and fell to sleep
Violation ruled the world the dark kingdom's time

He's called Hawkmoon wearing a sign
Black jewel in his head
He's the one who's forever there
He's born a thousand times

Damned for all time
In every age he existed
To see he's damned for all time
In every future he'll live for all time
He's crying, he's crying

Hey strange one I know you're standing there
The faces are they mine? Are you out there?
Watch out for the day, friend
I'll know your name, hear my laughter

Oblivion
Who's blowing the horn?
Oblivion
Who's killing the Gods?

Damned for all time
In every age he existed
I see he's damned for all time
In every future he'll live for all time

Dark kingdom's lost now
No pain storms the land
Strange things are happening
Changing of all planes

In the universe by a mad magician
To conquer the power of his magic
A place where truth waits must be found
Tanelorn

Damned for all time
Who am I?
Once I've been called
Erepose

I was Elric, I'll be Corum
I'm the Prince of the South Ice
Now I'm nothing wait for someone
Wait for Ilian, no I'm Hawkmoon

Oblivion
The war is eternal
Oblivion
The battle is endless

Damned for all time
In every age he existed to see
He's damned for all time
In every future he'll live for all time
He's crying, he's crying, oh crying
