Conquer the whole world to satisfy their lust for pain and terror disguise their faces to hide them in the dark determination

The oath on the runestaff is the highest the ruin of a nation step by step destiny

Damned for all Time - but what's time ?
Tales of the one who's born to change

And as the earth was old and cold she closed her eyes and fell to sleep violation ruled the world the dark kingdom's time

He's called Hawkmoon wearing a sign black jewel in his head he's the one who's forever there he's born a thousand times

Ref.:
Damned for all Time
in every age he existed Damned for all Time
in every future he'll live for all Time he's crying he's crying

Hey strange one I know you're standing there the faces are they mine ?
Are you out there ?
Watch out for the day, fiend I'll know your name hear my laughter

Oblivion - who's blowing the horn Oblivion - who's killing the gods

Ref.: Damned...

Dark kingdom's lost now no pain storms the land strange things are happening changing of all planes in the universe by a mad magican to conquer the power of his magic a place where truth waits must be found Tanelorn

Damned for all Time - who am I ?
Once I've been called Erekoze

I was Elric - I'll be Corum I'm the prince of the south ice Now I'm nothing wait for someone wait for Ilian
No ! I'm Hawkmoon

Oblivion - the war is eternal Oblivion - the battle is endless

Ref.: Damned...
