Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle

Concentrate, I'm your contact link across the great divide
Many voices in my ear hold on I think there's something coming through from the other side
It's for all those who believe

The chain is stronger if the lifeline is unbroken
So beware the presence of 'The Unexpected Guest'

Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle

Unexplained, many things we thought were lost may come to light
On a higher plain in the spirit world
Where only a few of us possess the second sight
Now the messenger awaits

The chain is stronger if the lifeline is unbroken
So beware the presence of 'The Unexpected Guest'

Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle must keep going on and on

But wait, is there one amongst us here who disbelieves?
A stranger to the sign take care
For all the things you fear may be revealed
Within the forces of the night

The chain is stronger if the lifeline is unbroken
So beware the presence of 'The Unexpected Guest'

Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle

Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle
Don't break the circle

The circle must keep going on and on Yes the circle must keep going on and on

Don't break
