Who can tell me who I am
Who I am my friend
I'm an alien so they say
A risk to everyone

No, tell me what do they see
No, tell me what do they feel
No, tell me what do they fear
No, tell me what do they see

I'm a dwarf but I know more than you
And I'm the key to a better life
From terror I could escape
But I need your helping hand

So far from home
Where I'm left alone
Did you hear my crying? No
Did you hear my crying?

Goodbye my friend
I found you at the end
I say goodbye to all

Goodbye my friend
Thanks for your helping hand
I say goodbye to all my cries
Just say goodbye

No returning nevermore
No returning nevermore

And I
Communication to you is so strange
You trust to no one, no warmths reach your heart
To you I'm the stranger but you're strange to me
You destruct all what is unknown to you

We are together now
And don't you know
I'll come back again
I must go now

Goodbye my friend
I found you at the end
I say goodbye to all

Goodbye my friend
Thanks for your helping hand
I say goodbye to all my cries
Just say goodbye

I will go home now
I will go home now

Much too long I'm forced to stay
In visions I see so dark and so deep
Mankind will destruct all life

See you again, I hope I will
See you again at the end?
My tortured soul cannot forget the pain
Now I find my way back

I will go home now

Goodbye my friend
I say goodbye to all

Goodbye my friend
I say goodbye to all my cries
Just say goodbye
