I run through the dark fields of the plains
Reach level 99
The pain cuts deep down through my vain
How will I break the ice?

Welcome to my reality
Dream forever
Sunlight instead of neon light, how will it be?
Welcome to my grave
And feel the dream is over
Nothing can stop me, I reach out for the top

Caught in an old cage
The system failed built up on lies
Now I see that I'm alone
In asylum's cage I'm left alone

I'm alive, my friend
I can feel the shadows everywhere
I'm alive
I left the shadows far behind me
Another one is waiting in the dark

They say the system keeps the last chance to survive
Caught in this labyrinth of walls and lots of lies
The [Incomprehensible] to understand, there's more above than ice
To reach the top, I crept deep down
The answers given in the past, a senseless worth in useless brains

Magic runes without a meaning
Besides the dark, there should be nothing left

Caught in an old cage
The system failed built up on lies
Now I see that I'm alone
In asylum's cage I'm left alone

I'm alive, my friend
I can feel the shadows everywhere
I'm alive

I left the shadows far behind me
Another one is waiting in the dark

Outside they say death is waiting
But it creeps down through the shaft
Finds pleasure in our helpless fear
Fills empty rooms with morbid thoughts

They've locked the door and hold the key
Sitting beside you when silent screams
Changing my mind and dreams
Oh, it's never ending

Caught in an old cage
The system failed built up on lies
Now I see that I'm alone
In asylum's cage I'm left alone

I'm alive, my friend
I can feel the shadows everywhere
I'm alive
I left the shadows far behind me
Another one is waiting in the dark
I'm alive
