To the gods of the north, i pray and raise my cup for the fallen ones then i cry
in valhalla they'll sing

Rain
red blood keeps pouring down come valkyries, join me on that final ride

Here i lie bleeding
odin, i await thee

The battle rages on

New lines they're weaving the future, the past and the present they're one they will reveal their mask to show me a way to survive this bitter war

Soon it will be over
he will be the one
we'll weave in

And terror will now rule these lands

When the battle is lost
and the slain ones are chosen valkyries will guide us home
valkyries will guide us home

Destiny
a spinning wheel
the path of glory round and round
come join us on your final ride to asgard let's move on fast allfather waits

so let's heed the final call

For now we leave this world behind it's over

All glory to the brave still blood will rain through storm and fire let war winds reign it's the feast for the crows

Follow the light just follow the light
or fade away

We'll keep on weaving we're crushing through lines with our battering swords we're marching on assign the brave
to survive

we'll heed the final call a call to arms
the valkyries will guide us home

The finally i hear them say carry on for valhalla awaits you
