If money talks then I'm a mime
If time is money then I'm out of time
And I was once with a million quid
Have a seat I'll tell ya what I did

Can't sit down 'cause I'm a dancer
And you know that I'm the answer
Die slow, die fast now
'Cause it's never gonna last now

We'll karaoke all night long
We'll Macarena till the break of dawn
We'll drive around until the morning light
All night, all night, all night, all night

Baby, you got to signal before you turn
I think you're heading for the disco burn
'Cause the future is in the future
And the past is a big brick wall

You know I need to make you understand now
I'm a man not a disco ball

Can't sit down 'cause I'm a dancer
And you know that I'm the answer
Die slow, die fast now
'Cause it's never gonna last now

We'll karaoke all night long
We'll Macarena till the break of dawn
We'll drive around until the morning light
All night, all night, all night, all night

We'll karaoke all night long
We'll Macarena till the break of dawn
We'll drive around until the morning light
All night, all night, all night, all night

All night, all night, all night, all night
All night, all night, all night, all night
All night, all night, all night, all night
All night, all night, all night, all night
