Everything you do it takes a little while to follow
If I can dream of a little silence in the room tonight
And everything she does it seems I'll always want to quarrel
If I can dream of a little silence in the room tonight

I see it took a while
Don't ask, don't waste my time
How did it take so long?
How did it take so long?

Everything you do it takes a little while to follow
If I can dream of a little silence in the room tonight
And everything she does it seems I'll always want to
quarrel
If I can dream of a little silence in the room tonight

I see it took a while
Don't ask, don't waste my time
How did it take so long?
How did it take so long?

I see it took a while
Don't ask, don't waste my time
How did it take so long?
How did it take so long?
