Get off my case motherfucker

The sun burns in the stranger's eyes
Just one tear before he dies
Black mass can't ease the pain
There's nothing, there's nothing, nothing sane

I hope this fuckin' world fuckin' burns away
And I'd kill you all if I had my way
But I'll live forever, questions curse me why
Oh, Lord above, why won't You let me die?

I'll never [Incomprehensible] again, no, no
I'll never [Incomprehensible] again, no, no, no
Never, oh, fuck, no
