Hail covers this is it
A 1000 amps toll the end time riff
The sky a coffin lid
All condemned beneath it's shadow
The chosen few, the chosen knew
Spelled out in the stars his prophecy
Raise your fists now you exist
The bell of doom strikes 13th hour

The time has come
All the chosen time to put down your bongs
Take up a knife end all life
Legalise drugs and murder
Satanas luciferus we pledge these souls to you
Now satans slaves, your lives weren't saved
Die now in the shadow of the pentagram

The chosen few, look up in the sky
The chosen few, waiting for the sign
The chosen few, still children of the grave
Satan's slaves
