"Feed The Cats"

I wonder where you are, I never know your name, we always meet but you never ever let me in.
You're crazy in the sun, you're laughter in the rain.
You close me tightly, it tears my mind, and makes me go.
Round and round, in the brain, sometimes I think I'm going insane:
"Feed the cats and pull me by the hair,"
What is this?
Who are you?
Why you smiling when you're blue?
Is this something that I gotta be?
Where you going babe?
I see you like the train
I never see you in the house, but you're always in the rain
Play with me my friend, I'm all alone tonight
Don't you make me go to bed and make me start Another dream, another night, lets run away and start a fight
Come with me and take me by the hand
What is this?
Who are you?
why you smiling when you're blue?
Is this something that i gotta be?
Feed the cats pull me down, what is this and where you from?
Round and round in the brain, sometimes I think I'm going insane
Another dream another night, lets run away and start a fight
Come and with me and take me by the hand
