"I See The Light"

Look around what do you see?
Crazy fools staring at me
Why do you just seem like running away?
Is it because you just want to stay?
You're foolish in your mind
I think you've crossed the line
Run circles in my brain
You've no idea of pain
I don't know what you can see
Crazy people staring back at me
As they peer upon their final face
Look, I've got a holeup in my head
I just don't know what i'd do in this place
Think it's because staring at the wall
I don't know what to do anymore
I see the light
I see the big bright lights
