A man looks at his son with a sad look upon his face
He doesn't cry

He sits there on the street within his eyes they're showing you
The reason why

Where have you gone? Gone away, leaving us in the same tragedy
Won't you stay? I don't know where to go, I don't know where to go
Please say to god we don't know where to go to save our souls

Hope falls from the sky on iron wings, But it don't ever hit the ground
People scatter everywhere
But all they see is the barrel of a gun

Where have you gone? Gone away, leaving us in the same tragedy
Won't you stay? I don't know where to go, I don't know where to go
Please say to god, I don't know where to go to save our souls

Say to god, I don't know where to go, I don't know where to go
Please say to god, I don't know where to go, I don't know where to go

Please say... Hooo
Please say...
