RAMBLER BLUES

By Blind Lemon Jefferson

Well, it's train time now, and the track's all out of
Line
Well, it's train time now, and the track's all out of
Line
And I come here soon, I wanna catch that Number Nine

I am worried and bothered, don't know what to do
I was worried and bothered, don't know what to do
Reason I'm worried and bothered, it's all on the 'count
Of you.

When I left my home, I left my baby cryin'
When I left my home, I left my baby cryin'
She keeps me worried and bothered in the mind.

Now, don't your house look lonesome, when your baby

Pack up and leave
Now, don't your house look lonesome, when your baby
Pack up and leave
You may drink your moonshine, but, baby, your heart
Ain't free.

If you take my rider, I can't get mad with you
If you take my rider, I can't get mad with you
Just like you're takin' mine, I'll take someone else's
Too

I got a girl in Texas, I've got a brown in Tennessee
I got a girl in Texas, I've got a brown in Tennessee
Lord, but that brown in Chicago have put that jinx bug
On me.
