Please let me in 'cause my house is falling down
There's trouble all over the town
Let me begin and I'll tell you a story
How Dracula hunted me down

Show me that you care
And of my presence you are aware
We don't need to shout or make a fuss
We are devout

Well I'd like to make a call to my kid
And I'd show him all the things that I did
Well I'd show him all the things that I did
Show him all the things that I did

Some people always come late
Others arrive in a dreadful state
I didn't get there at all
The gun's in the holster and it's too small

Who's that outside my door?
The house is falling in, it's world war again
Who's that outside my door?
Who's that outside my door?

Well I'd like to make a call to my kid
And I'd show him all the things that I did
Well I'd show him all the things that I did
Show him all the things that I did

Well I'd like to make a call to my kid
