I never did drugs and I never got high
I never got laid and I never want to die

I never did sin and I never did lie
I never did dream and I never kissed the sky

I never did drugs and I never got high
I never got laid and I never but today is the day that it's all gonna change
'cause I had all these pills and then everything went very strange

Oh but today's the day I joined the action, we know what you are
Oh but today's the day I made the connection, we know
what you are

I never cut class and I never was late I never got down and I never complicate it

I never got you but you never got me
I never got down and you never set me free

I never did drugs and I never got high
all gonna change
very strange

what you are
Oh but today's the day I made the connection, we know
what you are

I never did drugs and I never got high
all gonna change
very strange

what you are
Oh but today's the day I made the connection, we know
what you are
We know what you, we know what you
We know what you are
