"Cry"

I've cried a million times, and it's easy
I've watched a million tear drops fall like rain
I've cried a million times and it's easy
To cry again

Don't stop, just leave me now, to wash away my pain
I've cried a million times and it's easy
To cry again

I've cried so many times and it's easy
I've lost a million lovers all in vain
I've tried a many times now it's easy
To cry again

So don't stop, just leave me now, to wash away my pain
I've cried a million times and it's easy
To cry again

Don't stop the river now
You won't stop the rain

I've cried a million times and it's easy
To cry, to cry, to cry again
To cry again
