Moon and stars above us shine
Everybody knows you're mine
Static on the channel 4
Television radio, hold me close when you are cold
Now I've got to get us home, everybody knows you're stoned

[Chorus]

And when you hear me calling
You will turn away and see me standing there
Waving my old colors, lifting up my arms
And you will understand
Kiss me on the lips again
Millions are just tuning in Sattelites begin to spin
Listen close and let me in

[Chorus]

And when you hear me calling
You will turn around and see me standing there
Waving my old colors, lifting up my arms
And you will understand

You will understand
