I feel like a man without a face
Like a foregner at this place
When you are standing by my side
I am completely in control
With a tighter grip around my soul
There's no way out, there's no return
I thought I was dreaming
When I found myself screaming
Hurt by wounds
That I've recived from you
CHORUS
I can't really understand
Why you talk the way you do
When I'm lying here on this shattered grounds
No I can't really understand
Why you do the things you do
To leave me all alone on these shattered grounds
You are the one that i adore
The keeper of a secret lore
Playing with danger, playing with tears
You are a complicated case
No-one could ever take your place
My life is kept within your hands
I thought I was dreaming
When I found myself screaming
Hurt by wounds
That I've recived from you
REPEAT CHORUS
