Feeling you get when you throw it away
Last lucky strike and a full ashtray
It happened once it won't happen again
Serving an ace to my swift back hand
Not strictly true is what i said to you
Last-ditch defence has been miscontrued
Corning correct simply had to forget
Flight of my skilfully crafted debt
Fight for you die for you I won't let you down
I flet you close on the balcony
It felt to me
That you still understood
Chorus:
Sometimes i wish
I had not gotten into it
Dismissed, I had to admit
Not been keeping it so legit
Not been keeping so legit
I'm just not feeling it
No inspiration, no lyrics enough said
Granted a few may have been mislead
Fooled by myself and I'm over absorbed
Can't see the end of this fresh record
Fight for you die for you I won't let you down
And I felt alone, on my balcony
Occured to me
How much you're still with me
Chorus x2
