"A Faithful Fascination"

It seems that I am thinking every thought that there may be to think all in a single day

Time doesn't take every single heart break when you're waiting oh so long
you will always, you will always be the one

Watching my somebody fall in love with someone else's love Severing worlds apart

Time doesn't take every single heart break
you will always, you will always be the one I started missing you the second that I let go of you that night
I started missing you the second that I let you go and now I'm wondering why All of these scenes and thoughts are surfacing up to my mind, oh my part of loving it's true is learning for you what is better so you know
You can hold my hand in yours
Now you
You can hold my hand inside of yours
