watch out, i fear i'm breaking down in here.
you've got me doubting in two.
i fall so deep in the lines.
for once i ask, abandon me this time.
better with or without.
still i can't help what is mine.
baby, baby i think i'm sorry now.
is this all that you ask.
baby, baby you're sorry too.
is this all i can do.
and watch out, my dear can you recall my eyes.
bound by love.
a burning howse had no sound, no sound.
and for once i see a sure philosophy.
study love or death they pull you up or down.

no, it's ok, no, you can stay, you can stay.
go, go, maybe you should go, well i don't know.
darling you can stay.
you've got me doubting in two.
still i can't help what is mine.
