It's kind of funny how it works
But as soon as I left
All the days that we spent
Came back to me

So I sat down real still
With your letter in my hand
And I thought of that one night long ago

When I ran into the park when it was dark
I didn't know if you could find me in the night
I got so scared that I went running after you

I still remember how you look
It's in the pictures of my mind
I hold your hand inside my head
I hold your smile in my dreams

It's strange enough to think
That there's a million miles
Keeping me from sitting next to you

Well, I know I can't drive
And I can't walk to you
Do you remember that one night long ago?

When I ran into the park when it was dark
I didn't know if you could find me in the night
I got so scared that I went running after you

I still remember how you look
It's in the pictures of my mind
I hold your hand inside my head
I hold your smile in my dreams

I still remember how you look
It's in the pictures of my mind
I hold your hand inside my head
I hold your smile in my dreams

I still remember how you look
It's in the pictures of my mind

I hold your hand inside my head
I hold your smile in my dreams
