Could it be the way you oppose me like you do
How can I see principle in you
When you're quiet, when I'm crying hard
So if you want to hold me now and treat me like you do
Go on, reach out anxious, ooh yeah

This time around is tearing me inside, gone to you
Too quick, my day is moving in this way
You don't know what I mean maybe
If you could see what I see
Tearing you away, I know I'm wrong, wrong, wrong

Could it be the way I oppose you like I do
Suppose I'm wrong, will I be feeling you breathing?
Heartbeat breaking down my door, you're something in the air
Even when I'm running from you, yeah
Go on, go on, say it, break me down

This time around is tearing me inside, gone to you
Too quick, my day is moving in this way
You don't know what I mean maybe
If you could see what I see
Tearing you away, I know I'm wrong, wrong, wrong

This time around is tearing me inside, gone to you
Too quick, my day is moving in this way
You don't know what I mean maybe
If you could see what I see
Tearing you away, I know I'm wrong, wrong, wrong

Could it be a piercing subtle holding in the soul
But I've found in you something sure and still fighting
Your promises are golden true
