Hello, I have this feeling, yeah
I'm a little down these days, don't really even know why
Bring me the words that I need
Won't you please be my tele, please be my telephone

Try to hold things all together
Please don't let it be this way, baby
Be careful what you say, actions will make words blush
Now I really wanna fight control

Hello, I have this feeling, yeah
I'm a little down these days, don't really even know why
Bring me the words that I need
Won't you please be my tele, please be my telephone

Beautiful to me, are all the things I see in a new day
The wonders of this life surpass brilliancy
Say what, can you get a hold on me?

Even thought I might now know
What tomorrow's going to tell me
Today my mind will grow because of what I'm shown
Let be what you see in me

Hello, I have this feeling, yeah
I'm a little down these days, don't really even know why
Bring me the words that I need
Won't you please be my tele, please be my telephone

In silence and subtlety he says
"Don't go away, I really want to Stay in silence and subtlety" and he says
"Maybe I'll call you later on in"

Silence and subtlety he says
"Don't go away I really want to Stay in silence and subtlety" and he says

Hello, I have this feeling, yeah
I'm a little down these days, don't really even know why
Bring me the words that I need
Won't you please be my tele, please be my telephone
